Favorite Quotes: Do Not Follow Where the Path May Lead; Go Instead Where There is No Path...and Leave a Trail; Act to overcome your weakness and your weakness will become your strength; The golden thread that runs through the lives of all great men: the willingness to fail in order to succeed; The greatest of faults is to be conscious of none; The biggest room in the world is the room for improvement; Do what you can with what you have where you are; Success is a journey, never a destination; The more you say, the less people remember; Luck is preparation meeting opportunity; Success is not the result of making money; making money is the result of success; Are you looking for an excuse to fail or a reason to succeed; It is not because things are difficult that we do not dare, it is because we do not dare that things are difficult; There are few true problems in life, only adjustments to be made; Be careful what you ask for, you might get it; Mistakes often repeat themselves in disguise; We can either treat symptoms or we can get to the root of our problems; Take Risks! If You Lose, and You Certainly Will Most of the Time, Make Comebacks!

About Me: I always favor the underdog! I believe in the powers of collaboration, love, grace, forgiveness & mercy. I believe there are more than enough resources in this world such that noone should ever have to want for any good thing, and I believe that all people can become overcomers, no matter what their circumstances, misperceptions or challenges!
